Employee Attacked on Loyola Campus of Concordia University

MONTRÉAL / December 2, 1993 — An employee of the University was attacked and found unconscious in a third-floor washroom of the Administration Building on Concordia's Loyola Campus this morning at 11:00 a.m. She was taken to the Montreal General Hospital, where she is recovering.

The woman had recently received anonymous, harassing letters and messages. Concordia Security was investigating the situation and Montréal Urban Community Police were called in on the case three weeks ago.
